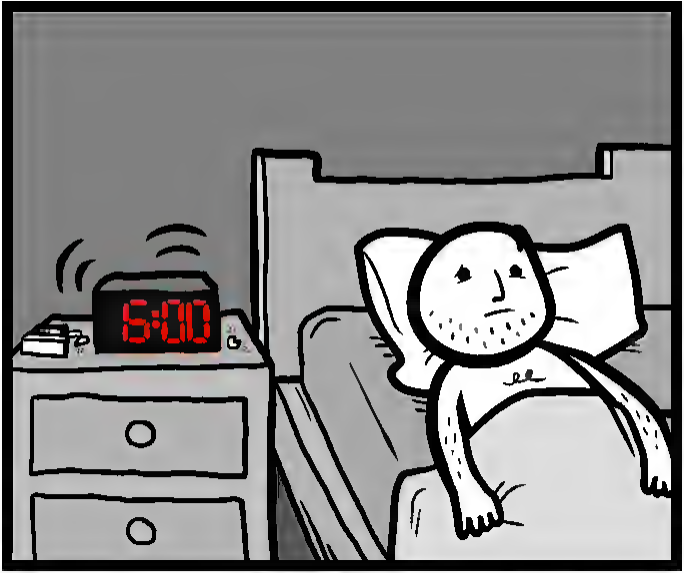
ANIMALS

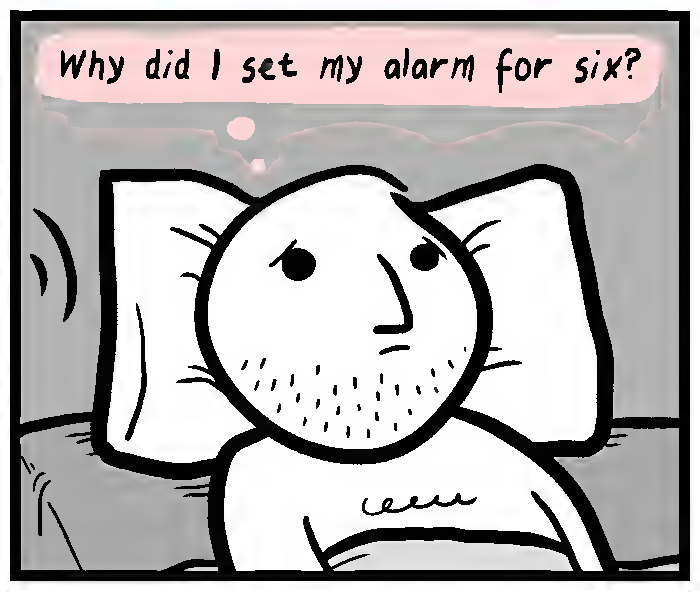
Squeaky Chair

BEST continue story 21

Why six?



5:00



Why did I set my alarm for six?

It's so early and I don't have work today.

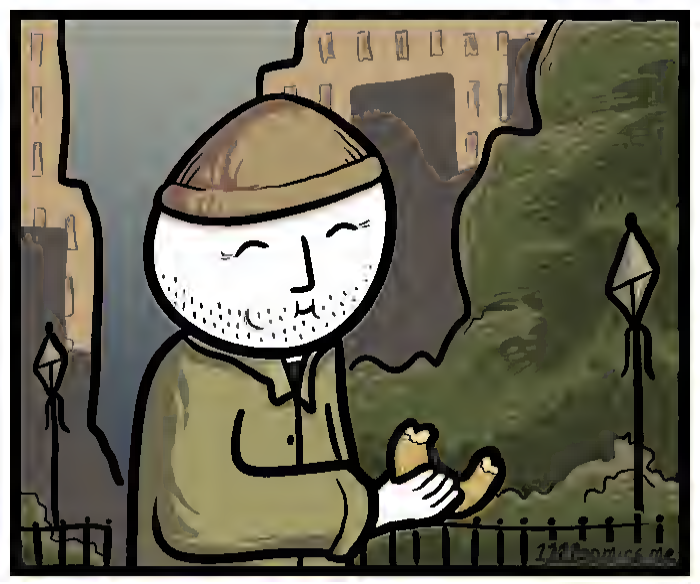
It's still dark outside.

Most people are in bed.

It's... cold.
But my jacket is warm.

I can hear dogs in the park.
And there's a familiar scent.

Bagels.



I know there was no animal in this one, but I wanted to make someone happy.

What animal for D?
